BRIEF COMMUNICATION

Clinical Ethics resources from the Royal Australasian College of Physicians

The Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP) Ethics Committee has developed three new resource related to Clinical Ethics:

1. A set of clinical ethics resources for Fellows and trainees, link: https://www.racp.edu.au/fellows/resources/clinical-ethics?_zs=p1X9I&_zl=RgSr1

2. The first RACP position statement on Clinical Ethics: https://www.racp.edu.au/docs/default-source/advocacy-library/racp-clinical-ethics-position-statement-2020.pdf?sfvrsn=5bbf81a_4&_zs=p1X9I&_zl=QgSr1

3. Updated RACP guidelines on ethical relationships between industry and health professionals: https://www.racp.edu.au/fellows/ethical-guidelines?_zs=p1X9I&_zl=OgSr1

David Isaacs
Editor-in-Chief JPCH
Departments of Infectious Diseases & Microbiology and Clinical Ethics
Children’s Hospital at Westmead

Jeff Szer
Editor-in-Chief IMJ
Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre & The Royal Melbourne Hospital

This is the author manuscript accepted for publication and has undergone full peer review but has not been through the copyediting, typesetting, pagination and proofreading process, which may lead to differences between this version and the Version of Record. Please cite this article as doi: 10.1111/jpc.15444

This article is protected by copyright. All rights reserved.
Author/s:
Isaacs, D; Szer, J

Title:
Clinical ethics resources from the Royal Australasian College of Physicians

Date:
2021-03-10

Citation:

Persistent Link:
http://hdl.handle.net/11343/298337